Patient Financial Responsibility Statement

In order for Ellington Behavioral Health (EBH) to maintain its fees at the lowest possible level, it is important that we have a good understanding with our patients regarding financial responsibility. We hope that this summary will be helpful toward that end. We encourage you to ask any questions you may have.

- You must pay any co-payments and applicable deductible amounts at the time of service. We accept cash, Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express.
- Patients with annual deductible must pay $50.00 at each visit until deductible is met.
- If you are not insured, or if the services are not covered by your insurance, you are expected provide full payment at the time they are rendered. EBH has an income based financial assistance paperwork that will be given upon request.
- EBH will bill your insurance company as a courtesy. Please understand that the financial responsibility for medical services rests between you and your health plan. While we are pleased to be of service by filing your medical insurance for you, we are not responsible any limitations in coverage that may be included in your plan. If your health plan denies this claim for of these or other reasons, our office cannot be responsible for this bill. It is your responsibility as a patient to pay denied amounts in full.
- In those instances, where we have a participating provider agreement with your insurance company for an agreed up negotiated rate for your services, an adjustment will be made in the amount of difference. You will remain responsible for required co-payments, applicable deductions and any services that are not covered by your insurance plan.
- If by mistake, your health plan remits payment to you, please deposit the check from your insurance company. Mail check and paperwork to
